

JARED PARKER

ADVISORY BOARD MEMBER

Jared Parker comes from an economics career within the State of Florida's Government. He maintains a wide range of experience in state policy, ranging from economic development to tax policy impacts.

Prior to founding the Regional Economic Consulting Group, Jared Parker worked in the Florida Legislative Office of Economic and Demographic Research (EDR), and prior to that the Tax Research Unit of the Florida Department of Revenue. He was responsible for projecting revenues and determining fiscal impacts of pending bills to the Legislatures' Revenue Estimating Panel. His tax experience includes Sales exemptions, Corporate Income, Insurance Premium, Communication Services, Documentary Stamp and Intangibles, and Electric and Gas Utilities.

Jared Parker is well versed in economic and policy analysis, whether it includes tax law, general economic development, or the cost of regulation. He received his M.S. in Applied Economics from Florida State, and has a broad range of experience on a variety of topics within the realm of state government. With many years of hands on experience in projecting the state's economy for the Legislature, he has been for the past decade a part of the revenue estimating process that both the Governor and the Legislature depend on to create their budgets. He brings to the REC Group invaluable experience in producing in depth outlooks and impacts and can deliver results in a clear and concise manner.
